By qualifying for the Silver Club, you will receive:

• Producer Paycheck - Producer's Club Level (1.5% = $1,500)* -

This is a paycheck for you on top of your commissions. Over the next 12 months, FIG will invest millions of dollars in our Producer Paycheck Reward Program. Write any annuity, life, or long term care business with us and we will pay you additional dollars on top of your GA contract. This reward program is based on CPC's earned during the current year.

— OR —

• Marketing Points (1.75% = 1,750 Points)* -

FIG wants to help you invest in your business on a consistent basis by awarding you marketing points to use towards marketing, branding, business building and lead programs. An array of items and services are featured on our online AdvantagePlus Catalog. Browse the catalog on our agent portal to shop and see an extensive listing of resources and programs to use your marketing points towards. Use your marketing points like cash to have an online shopping experience through FIG that will take your business to the next level.

* When you write any annuity, life, or long term care business with us, we will credit you additional marketing points based on CPC's earned during the current year. All points will expire 12 months from when they are originally earned.

Program Guidelines:

Advisor's Advantage is an annual benefit program provided to FIG producers rewarding multiple levels of production. To participate in the Advisor's Advantage Program, the agent must be actively contracted with FIG. The enrollment form must be returned to participate in the program. Production tracking begins on the date the enrollment form is returned. Eligibility for the benefits at each level (Silver, Gold, Platinum, and Diamond Club) is based on the agent having met the specified paid premium amounts for each club level. Reimbursements and rewards will be distributed to the agent only after the production amount is paid. This program is for the writing agent at TOP GA contracts only. Agents participating in the Mentor Program, VA program, The Practice, and/or CPR are not eligible for FIG value added incentive marketing programs or reimbursements. All monetary benefits and services of the Advisor's Advantage programs are subject to taxes. You will receive a 1099 form at the end of the calendar year from FIG. This program may exclude any business with Annexus Group, Aviva LSA Product and Midland. Exclusions could be changed through out the year.

* Based on CPCs earned during current year.
